Guide to Serving the Underserved

Student National Pharmaceutical Association

SNPhA

Pronounced Sna-Fa

History

The Student National Pharmaceutical Association (SNPhA) was founded in 1972 as a student affiliate of the National Pharmaceutical Association (NPhA). SNPhA is an education and service association of pharmacy and pre-pharmacy students who are concerned about pharmacy, healthcare related issues, and the need for greater minority representation in pharmacy and other health professions.

Purpose

The purpose of SNPhA is to plan, organize, coordinate and execute programs geared toward the improvement of health, educational, and social environments of underserved communities. Also, SNPhA offers professional development and leadership opportunities for its members at the local and national level.

Objectives

- To educate students about and promote active participation in national health care issues
- To offer students the opportunity to develop leadership and patient communication skills
- To develop the role of the minority health professional as a vital member of the healthcare team
- To educate underserved community members on better health practices and increase awareness and understanding of different disease states
