

The American Pharmacists Association – Academy of Student Pharmacists (APhA-ASP) is the umbrella organization for the School of Pharmacy, allowing for collaboration with all 17 student organizations. APhA-ASP serves as the collective voice of student pharmacists both here and nationally. The multiple committees within APhA-ASP allow for many opportunities for student involvement and leadership through patient care, international exchange programs, interprofessional networking, social events, and policy and advocacy.

Phi Lambda Sigma is the national pharmacy leadership society committed to supporting leadership by recognition and fostering leadership development. Our goals include continuing the availability of student and practitioner leaders for the profession of pharmacy, acknowledging leadership achievement and award membership to leaders recommended by the Society, and enhancing the talent, skill, and effectiveness of leaders for the profession of pharmacy.

The Rho Chi Society is pharmacy's academic honor society, which consists of members who are selected on the basis of academic and professional achievement and initiated during the spring semester of the second professional year. We encourage and recognize excellence in intellectual achievement by holding events such as research poster sessions, speaking events, and peer tutoring reviews. Beyond pharmacy school, The Rho Chi Society recognizes members as lifelong intellectual leaders that instill the desire to continually advance the practice.

The Student National Pharmaceutical Association (SNPhA) is an organization dedicated to serving the underserved while increasing diversity in the profession of pharmacy. We are committed to advancing underserved communities by directly impacting patient's lives through education and service.

Pitt's chapter for the Academy of Managed Care Pharmacy (AMCP) serves to engage student pharmacists in learning about sound medication management principles and strategies to improve healthcare for all. As a chapter, we have monthly meetings to talk about topics in managed care, as well as host quarterly North-East webinar series where attendants include health plans, PBMS, and manufacturers. Annually, we have a Pharmacy and Therapeutics (P&T) competition that takes place in the spring semester where students work in teams to analyze a new drug entering the market and have the opportunity to incorporate it into a mock formulary.

SCCP

of CLINICAL PHARMACY

Paralleling the values of our parent organization, the Student College of Clinical Pharmacy (SCCP) is devoted to the advancement of students who are interested in all aspects of clinical pharmacy. We are the premier organization within the pharmacy school for students wanting to pursue careers involving research and residency. We provide programming and opportunities for students to not only learn about advancements in clinical pharmacy, but also to teach about their own successes in the field.

The College of Psychiatric and Neurologic Pharmacists (CPNP) chapter at Pitt was founded in 2014. Our vision is to ensure that every individual living with a psychiatric or neurologic disorder has an adequate care team, including a neuropsychiatric pharmacist accountable for optimal medication therapy. We have many great opportunities for personal development from shadowing pharmacists at Western Psychiatric Institute and Clinic or networking at our national conference. We also hold a Naloxone demonstration at Harbor Light Rehabilitation Center each semester, promote awareness by inviting guest speakers to discuss relevant neuropsychiatric issues, and promote mental wellness throughout the pharmacy school.

The American Society of Consultant Pharmacists (ASCP) aims to prepare students for careers providing comprehensive pharmaceutical care to older adults. Through guest lectures, service activities, and shadowing experiences, students gain a thorough understanding of the unique medication challenges posed by caring for geriatric patients. While simultaneously giving back to the senior citizens of the Pittsburgh community, students also have the opportunity to expand their knowledge of geriatric pharmacotherapy and the complex relationships that exist between patient age and medication response.

Pitt Pharmacy
Investment Portfolio

The Pitt Pharmacy Investment Portfolio (PIIP) is a student-run investment portfolio that focuses on securities with a high exposure to healthcare. The Pitt Pharmacy Investment Portfolio was created with the idea that healthcare students will be the experts in recognizing the potential value that healthcare companies pose to the market and can use this expertise to better understand how industry drivers influence changes in clinical practice.

Kappa Psi is an international, coed fraternity that is based on the four principles of industry, sobriety, fellowship, and high ideals, and we form an extensive network of brothers with similar goals and values. Our chapter also gives back to the community through a number of philanthropic endeavors such as volunteering at Family House and fundraising for Reach Out and Read, Relay for Life, and the Birmingham Free Clinic. We strive to maintain a close bond between our brothers, including alumni and professors, through activities such as intramural sports, a weekend ski trip, holiday parties, and much more.
